

The Faith of Our Fathers Conference: The Gospel Shows the Father's Grace

The proper understanding of the Law of God is essential for a Christian. Unfortunately, there has been much disagreement in American Lutheranism concerning the role of the Law in the Church. Last year, we focused on the dangers of antinomianism, the importance of the third use of the law, and how these topics have impacted the Missouri Synod's preaching and teaching in recent years. This year, we will be focusing on the beautiful harmony of God's Law and Gospel and how His promises shape the Christian life. As recently sainted John Warwick Montgomery said, "The answer to antinomianism, social-gospel legalism, and existential relativism lies not only in the proper distinction between Law and Gospel, as C. F. W. Walther so effectively stressed, but also in the proper harmony of Law and Gospel, as set forth in the classic doctrine of the Third Use of the Law."

Over two days at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Collinsville, IL, February 28th and March 1st, we will learn about and discuss God's Law and Gospel, preaching, growth and struggle in the Christian life, and what the Lutheran Confessions have to say about all these matters.

This conference is for both laity and pastors. Come join us for good theology, fellowship, and maybe even a little fun.

Speakers: Rev. Ben Ball; Rev. Dr. Jon Bruss; Rev. Dr. Thomas Egger; Rev. Dr. Gifford Grobien; Rev. Andrew Preus; Rev. William Weedon; and, Rev. Andy Wright

Preachers: Pr. Andrew Packer; Pr. Joshua Scheer; and, Pr. David Ramirez

It sets the Lamb before our eyes, who made the atoning sacrifice, and calls the souls with guilt oppressed to come and find eternal rest.
